

LEO KIELY

Chief Executive Officer

Leo Kiely is chief executive officer of MillerCoors. He is responsible for leading the new company and has a hands-on management style and keen knowledge of the beverage business.

Most recently, Leo was the president and chief executive officer of Molson Coors Brewing Company, a position he accepted in 2005. He has guided the company through major transitions in recent years, including the merger of Adolph Coors Company and Molson Inc. in 2005 and the acquisition of what is now Coors Brewers Limited in the United Kingdom. Leo joined Coors in 1993 as its chief operating officer, and moved into the role of chief executive officer in 2000.

Previously, Leo served in executive management and marketing positions with Frito-Lay Inc., a subsidiary of PepsiCo, and Ventura Coastal Corporation, a division of Seven Up Inc.

Leo earned a bachelor's degree from Harvard University and a master's degree in business administration from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.
